

THE CROWN HILL TREE PROGRAM

ADOPT A TREE

Select an existing tree near your special place in Crown Hill, or let us select a tree for you. You will receive a certificate that will include the tree species and exact location in the cemetery.

PLANT A TREE

Work with us to select a tree. We will order, transport, plant and care for your chosen tree. You will receive a certificate that will include the tree species and exact location in the cemetery.

BUILD A LIVING LEGACY

Establish an endowment fund to ensure the integrity of the Crown Hill tree canopy. To learn more about creating your legacy, please contact the Foundation.

THE TREES OF CROWN HILL

- ◆ Crown Hill is the largest green space inside the I-465 beltway circling Indianapolis.
- ◆ More than 4,100 inventoried trees featuring 130 distinct species grace Crown Hill's 555 acres.
- ◆ Crown Hill makes up a significant portion of Indianapolis' urban forest and provides a sizable urban canopy that sustains diverse populations of migratory birds and wildlife including a herd of white-tailed deer.
- ◆ The trees of Crown Hill provide an oasis of calm in a bustling urban setting where visitors can experience the beauty, power and mysteries of nature.
- ◆ Ginkgo, Carolina silverbell, Golden rain tree, American holly, Kentucky coffeetree, Weeping European beech, American hornbeam, Mockernut hickory, Tuliptree, Eastern cottonwood, Sycamore, Oak and more wait to greet you.
